New Business

Budget – Fiscal Officer Ramey reviewed with Council the 2026 Appropriations, showing the breakdown of projects due within the budget this year and the 2027 Appropriations with list of transfers and projects already in place for next year. It was Fiscal Officer Ramey's recommendation to Council, to increase the Street Fund to $84,000. Discussion continued over both years 2026 & 2027 of Appropriations. Fiscal Officer informed Council that she is working on the Tax Budget.

Health Care – Council discussed to start looking into other healthcare options now, so the Village can see what is available when open enrollment comes around this year.

Clothing Allowance – Council discussed amending the Personnel Policy Section 8.13 Uniform Allowance. Council would like to have the uniform policy to be pro-rated yearly. If an employee leaves employment with the village, said employee shall pay back remaining balance for that remaining year. Council would also like to see all employees in Village of Milan with screened or embroidered shirts as well.

Other – Brian discussed the North Central EMS new proposals for each surrounding communities in the area. Also being considered is one EMS system throughout Erie County.
